Abstract

The Product Creation Process is described in its context. A phased model for Product Creation is shown. Many organizations use a phased model as blueprint for the way of working. The operational organization of the product creation process is discussed, especially the role of the operational leader.

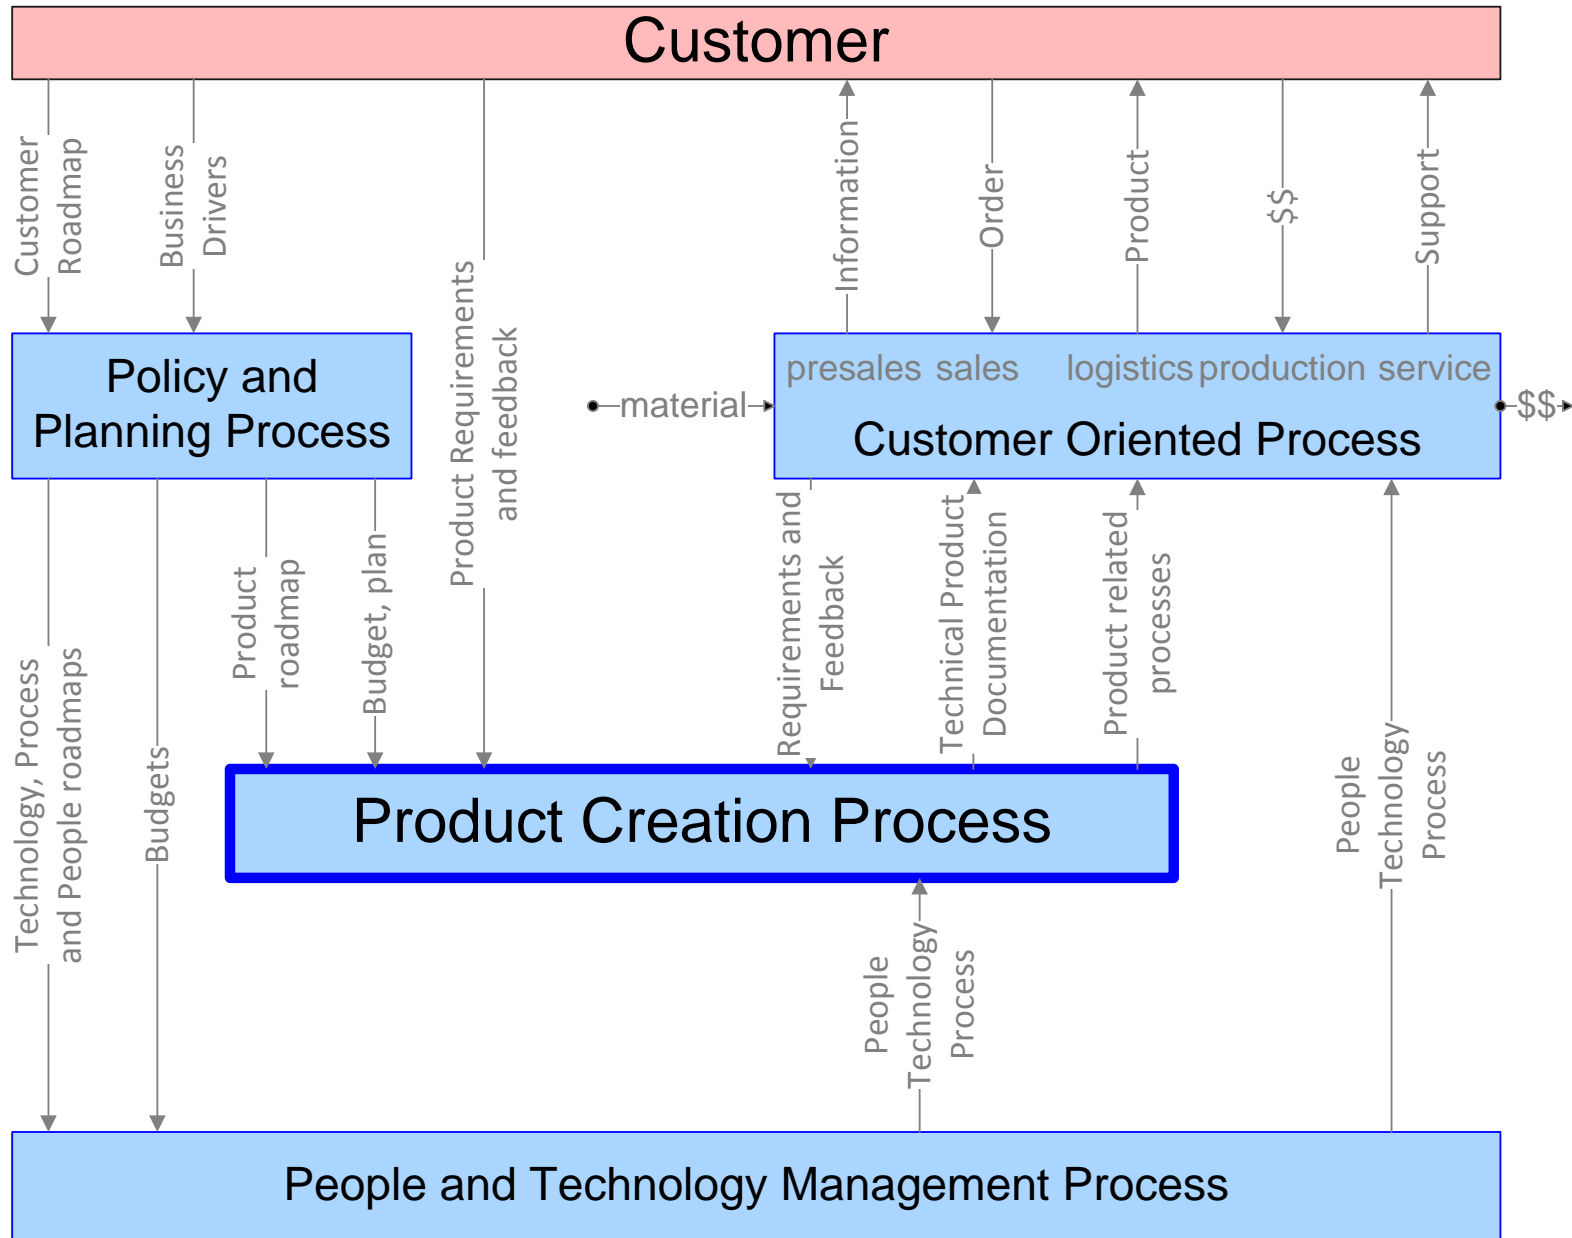

Distribution

This article or presentation is written as part of the Gaudí project. The Gaudí project philosophy is to improve by obtaining frequent feedback. Frequent feedback is pursued by an open creation process. This document is published as intermediate or nearly mature version to get feedback. Further distribution is allowed as long as the document remains complete and unchanged.

Characteristics of a Phase Model

Define a minimal set of large-impact decisions.

Define the mandatory and supporting information required for the decision.

Schedule a decision after the appropriate phase transition.

Decide explicitly.

Communicate the decision clearly and widely.
